PREFACE

Volume I of this publication appeared in 1915. Since that time there has been a frequently repeated demand for the publication of the existing remainder of the Maryland Colonial Census of 1776, and the same is here made available (pp. 79–230, partly in facsimile). The other facsimile records of West St. Mary's Manor (pp. xi) and the State of His Lordship's Manors (Frontispiece and pp. 4–78) contain the names and ages of settlers of yet earlier periods and all these records will be found valuable. The Colonial Census and the Lord Baltimore records are so large in size and often so indistinct in preservation, and of such varying construction, that special code treatment has been necessary. A careful study of the explanation given at the beginning of each of these sections is necessary and will quickly enable the reader to understand and use the materials as published.

Many of the names of the Colonial period were phonetically and otherwise poorly spelled. The spellings found in the original records have been followed and an effort to assist the reader is made throughout the comprehensive index. Page 184, "Shurlotter Mitchel" is evidently Charlotte Mitchel; page 185, "Elexander Larance" is probably Alexander Lawrence; page 259, Charles "Ginings" is probably Jennings; etc. The searcher should constantly keep in thought the possible phonetic variations of the names being sought in the index.

Negative and positive photostatic copies and the original records themselves, and a reading glass, were used in preparing this volume. In cases of extreme importance to the reader, or of doubt as to the published spelling, it may be well to refer to the original record the location of which is usually mentioned throughout the volume. Photostatic copies of many of these original records may be obtained from the Maryland Historical Society, custodian of the State Archives, or from the author.

The last section of page 136, as deciphered by means of a reading glass appears to be:

|---|---|
| James Mather.....53 | Mary Mather.....20 |
| Jemimah (?) Mather.....57 | Jeremiah Mather.....— |
| Michael Mather.....25 | Darby Dwur.....40 |
| Thomas Mather.....23 | Lucy Morgan, Svts.....25 |

The indistinct portion of page 300 has been supplied on page 308.

The number of times a name appears upon a given page is often indicated thus: "(2)." However, it is well to glance through the entire page as the name may appear as "Sr." and "Junr." yet be indexed only once on the page. The reader will be much interested in tracing the same person through several classes of records at different ages of the person.

Numerous co-workers who secured and suggested important source records for this volume since its preparation began, have passed to the other life, and it is a pleasure to record full appreciation for their assistance. The Right Reverend Alfred Harding, D.D., Bishop of Washington, mentioned in the Preface to Vol. I, gave direction to my first researches and frequently expressed his continued interest and approval. The "Broad Creek Records," etc., are as a result ready for publication in Vol. III. Governor Edwin Warfield who died in April, 1920, and who, as President of the Md. Historical Society, placed many of its historical treasures at my disposal. Mr. James Walter Thomas kindly and freely granted copyright use (p. 208) from his important "Chronicles of Maryland." Mr. George W. Hodges carefully transcribed the Anne Arundel Co. Marriages (p. 415) and the Worcester Parish Records (p. 579), and the late Dr. Wm. Tayloe Snyder materially assisted in securing various Episcopal Church Records.

Among the numerous living helpers it is a pleasure to acknowledge the coöperation of the officers of the Maryland Historical Society, and especially the continuous interest and active assistance of Mr. Charles Fickus, acting Librarian, and, recently, of Dr. J. Hall Pleasants, Chairman of its Publication Committee. Mr. Francis Barnum Culver, Registrar General, N. S. Sons of American Revolution, and also prominent officer in various other national patriotic societies, has closely followed the progress of the work and has kindly written the Introduction. Mr. Arthur Sullivan Browne, Register of Rock Creek Parish has shown his active coöperation throughout the years, and the materials to be published in Vol. III will more fully show the results of his interest. To all those mentioned and to the various other Church and County officers and to all the friends who have assisted in making this volume possible, including my wife who extensively assisted in the preparation of the index, and to the Lancaster Press, Inc., printers, I express most cordial thanks.

INTRODUCTION

Men generally are satisfied with a superficial brand of knowledge and usually that knowledge is confined to a few subjects of common interest. Their attitude is based for the most part upon the practical value of material things, and whatever seems less likely to yield profit or personal advantage is consistently ignored.

There are some minds however, which delight in probing beneath the surface and in exploring neglected by-paths in search of hidden treasures. For those who are so inclined, the Maryland Historical Society of Baltimore provides a fertile field, a veritable mine of historical lore.

In this volume of Maryland Records and in the volume which preceded it, Dr. Gaius M. Brumbaugh, the compiler and author, has culled from a mass of material in the Society's possession, and from numerous other original sources, a prodigious amount of data heretofore little known and not generally accessible.

The contents of this work are remarkably interesting and valuable in every respect; particularly, from the genealogical view-point. An examination of the Table of Contents of this volume will show how extensive the field is, and a study of the text will reveal a discerning and discriminating sense on the part of the compiler.

The lists of Maryland marriages, the transcripts of the church records of various counties of the State, the census reports of the inhabitants, the data from the early Rent Rolls and Land Books, and perhaps most interesting to patriotic societies, the section devoted to Maryland Revolutionary War pensioners, constitute a collection of historical material which will make Dr. Brumbaugh's work indispensable as a book of reference. A voluminous index adds to the value of the whole.

"State of His Lordship's Manors," 1766, 1767, 1768. Rent Rolls—Partial Census

"Frederick the sixth, last Lord Baltimore, was born Feb. 6, 1731/2. His guardians, during the brief period of his minority which remained after his succession to the title, were John Sharpe, Esq., a barrister, and the Right Honorable Arthur Onslow, Speaker of the House of Commons." *

"——, Frederick, it was admitted, enjoyed from this heritage at the time of his marriage in 1753 [to Lady Diana Egerton, who d. Aug. 1758] a yearly revenue of £9,500, and at the time of his death in 1771, the amount had increased to £12,000." †

Mr. Arthur Trader, C. C. Land Commissioner's Office, Annapolis, Md., writes: "We have never published a list of Manors as recorded in our records, as the office has always considered them to be private estate of the Lords Baltimore, and would properly belong to the separate estate of the Proprietary."

"All of these lands were either sold by private sale, before the Revolution, or by the Intendent of the Revenue, as confiscated British property. They were not sold under their Manor names, but as seated farm lands."

The following reports are carefully prepared for printing from photostatic copies of the original unbound and much worn record book, extending across 2 pp. each $12^1/_2'' \times 17^1/_2''$, and from a few separate sheets. It has seemed impractical to here reproduce these large sheets in facsimile, and they represent the discoveries to date amongst the historical treasures of this character in the Maryland Archives. They are published through the coöperation and courtesy of the Maryland Historical Society.

"Dead" and "Expired," wherever written in "(M)" appear in a handwriting different from the excellent writing of the various reports.

The ages of the Lessees, see "(L)," "(M)," (M 1), appear to be calculated as for 1766, 1767, 1768, as given on each Manor List. This is valuable genealogical source material. G. M. B.

* First Division of Dorchester County into Hundreds:

The first political divisions of Dorchester County were hundreds, of which there is no official record to be found of their boundary lines, but the locations of the hundreds are recognizable by their names. They were laid out prior to 1698 when there were few roads through the vast forests which were only bounded by creeks, streams and other bodies of water.

The names of the hundreds were:

1. Great Choptank Hundred.
2. Nanticoke Hundred.
3. Transquaking Hundred.
4. Fishing Creek Hundred.
5. Little Choptank Hundred.
6. Hermitage (or Armitage) Hundred.
7. Straits Hundred.
8. Cambridge Hundred.

These divisions of the county were recognized in the appointment of constables, road overseers and other district officials, but were not election districts. They were retained as county divisions until 1829 when the county was divided into eight election districts herein named." Hist. of Dorch. Co.,—Elias Jones, 1902, pp. 142, 143.

Talbott County, Mill Hundred, Census of 1776,

"A list of the Inhabatents taken In Mill Hundred By Thos. Tibbels in yeare 1776."

This record is literally in shreds and has been carefully matched together, and read by aid of a magnifying glass. Three sheets each 14 × 16½ inches were fastened together, side by side, with sealing wax.

"a" here means "Above 50 years"; "b" means "Between 16 and 50"; "c" means "Under 16," and "e" means "Total," which latter includes the "Blacks." "x" means white "Males"; "z" means white "Females"; "n" means "Blacks." To carry out the partial uniformity with the preceding lists the "n" is placed last (after "e" or "Totals").

Talbott County, Tuckahoe Hundred, Census of 1776

This yellow and fragile record consisted apparently of sheets $13\frac{1}{4} \times 12$ inches, fastened together by red sealing wax, having a total length of 28 inches, doubled. Of the first half but $7\frac{1}{2} \times 12$ inches remains, and an inch strip 21 inches long, from the left side of the other half, and carrying the Christian, or "given," names is also missing. All decipherable letters, using the magnifying glass, are reproduced for the investigator.

"a" here means "Above 50" years; "b" means "Between 16 & 50"; "c" means "Under 16," and "n" means "Blacks." "x" means white "Males"; "z" means white "Females."

MINISTERIAL RECORDS OF PRINCE GEORGE'S PARISH*

* Rock Creek, pp. 370–409.

"Register of Baptism 1792–1845. Prince George's Parish, Montgomery Co., Md.—with other Records—Mutilated Condition"

Rev. Ch. M. Parkman wrote from Spottswood, N. J., Apr. 5, 1883, that he found this mutilated record, in 1883, in the garret of the Rectory. "My predecessor here was Rev. Lorenzo S. Russell and I believe he was once Rector of the Parish." "If you have examined it at all, you will see how valuable it really is, and also that in 'early days' there was a large work being done."

The first 98 pp. are missing. Funerals, commencing on p. 99, Jan. 14, 1796, extend to Oct. 8, 1814, and p. 103.

Rev. Thos. G. Allen moved from Va., July 30, 1820, and took charge of the Parish. His entries for funerals extend from p. 104 to 108, and for baptisms begin on p. 196. This record extends to p. 211, ending with Nov. 13, 1852.

Rev. Levin I. Gilliss, Rector of P. G. Parish, gives his record of Funerals on p. 111, extending from Apr. 7, 1830, to Aug. 26, 1832.

Between p. 111 and p. 112 a sheet of Marriages beginning Jan. 2, 1806, and ending 1813 has been inserted. These appear from an original record in the Md. Hist. Soc. to be residents of Anne Arundel Co.

"Rockville, March 10, 1828. I hereby resign my charge of Prince George's Parish after having endeavoured faithfully to discharge the duties of Rector for seven and two third years. And may the richest blessings of Heaven descend upon the dear people:—May they thus be rewarded for all their kindness and affection towards me:—May they be led to select that faithful minister of the word who shall be the happy instrument of leading them in the way everlasting; and after all our wanderings and trials here, may I be crowned with the great joy of meeting them all in that land of pure delight where Saints immortal reign. Amen. Amen.

Thos. G. Allen."

(Original Record, 1792–1845.)

Prince George's Record, p. 416, contains this entry: "The first person baptized in the New Church at Rockville, Apr. 7, 1822.

"Robert Henry Allen, son of Henry and Sarah.

"Rachel, dau. of Jerry and Charity belonging to Dr. Bowie and Mrs. Middleton." (Orig. Rec., p. 199.)

"In July following the above the Rev. Henry C. Knight of the Diocese of Mass. was elected to the rectorship which he held for one year."

1828

"Account of Baptisms by the Revd. Henry Cogswell Knight, late of the Diocese of Mass., now Rector of Christ Church, Rockville, Prince George's Parish; and of St. Bartholomew's Church on Holland's River, Montgomery Co., Md." These records are upon pp. 212–214, Orig. Record.

Knight, Henry Cogswell. This certifies that the subscriber, from the Diocese of Mass., came to Rockville about the middle of July, 1828, and was nominally appointed Rector of Christ Church, in Prince George's parish; and also of St. Bartholomew's parish, Montgomery county, Md.; but that the choice of a Vestry having been neglected on the last Easter Monday, in both parishes, the election of the Rector could not be legally confirmed, in either parish, until some weeks afterwards, when, previous notification being given, the Vestry were chosen, qualified and confirmed the same according to law. Henry C. Knight."

"I was ordained a Deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church, by the Right Rev. Alexander Vietts Griswold, D.D., of the Eastern Diocese, May 6, 1827.

I was ordained a Priest in the Protestant Episcopal Church, by the Right Rev. Henry Ustick Onderdonk, D.D., Philadelphia, Diocese of Pennsylvania, Dec. 20, 1828, Orig. record, p. 136. Henry C. Knight.

June 15, 1829. At the end of the Annual Convention in Baltimore, which is to meet on the 17th of this month, I shall resign the Rectorship of Prince George's and St. Bartholomew's Parishes, into the hands of the Vestries, affectionately committing the people of my late charge, both in temporal and spiritual concerns, to the mercy and love of God, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Henry C. Knight."

(Orig. Rec., p. 213.)

"On the 24th of July, 1829, the Rev. Levin Irving Gilliss succeeded Mr. Knight and served the parish until April, 1844.

The Rev. Edward Waylen of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was next elected rector of Prince George's parish and entered on his duties June 1, 1844.

In the same month the Rev. Orlando Hutton, late rector of Westminster parish, near Annapolis, took charge of the adjoining parish of St. Bartholomew's hitherto held conjointly with Prince George's."

(Orig. Rec., 1792–1845.)

Edward Waylen was Rector June 1, 1844, and Geo. F. Worthington took charge of the Parish Oct. 6, 1845.

Record of Marriages and Funerals—Rev. Thomas Read, 1796–1808*

"One of the most historical of the early parishes is Prince George, commonly known as Rock Creek Parish. It was erected in 1726, and embraced within its limits all the territory lying between the Potomac and Patuxent Rivers, and the eastern branch and a line drawn from thence to the Patuxent and extending westward to the westerly bounds of the Province; thus including not only a part of the District of Columbia, but Georgetown and all the Counties of Western Maryland; and from it all the parishes now within that domain were originally carved, or are the result of subdivisions."

"The first Rector of the parish was the Rev. George Murdock, who was commissioned by Gov. Charles Calvert, in Dec., 1726, and who officiated for thirty-four years, and until his death, in 1761. He was followed by Rev. Alexander Williamson, who served fourteen years, and was succeeded by the Rev. Thomas Read, who had previously been Curate of the parish, and also Rector of St. Anne's, Annapolis. He was inducted in 1777, and continued to be Rector of the parish thirty-four years, when he resigned. During Mr. Read's pastorate of Rock Creek Parish, he kept a record of the marriages performed by him within the parish, and as well also a necrology covering the same period. A part of this record has been preserved—from 1796 to 1808 inclusive. After the death of Mr. Read it came into possession of his son, the late Robert Read, of Cumberland, after whose demise it was presented by his widow, Sarah Johns Read [through James Walter Thomas] to the Md. Hist. Soc. This old record is singularly valuable, not only because of the large area covered by the parish, embracing, even at that date, nearly the whole of Montgomery County, but more especially by reason of the fact that the Montgomery records do not begin until 1798, and the necrology of the County being exceedingly meagre and limited. —— this marriage record is somewhat more comprehensive than the Montgomery records even after the latter were started, as it is not confined to marriges performed by license issued in that county, as are its records."

* Quoted from "Chronicles of Colonial Maryland; Thomas, pp. 208–217." The source of the marriage and funeral record of Rev. Thos. Read is the original volume from which Mr. Richard Henry Spencer, Cor. Secy. Md. Historical Society, kindly caused the entire records to be transcribed and compared.

* "License, Ann Arundel granted."

"Mr. Wm. H. Talbott is correct in his opinion that the words "License Granted—Anne Arundel County" [Chronicles of Colonial Md., Thomas, 1913, p. 212] were intended to be and should have been printed as a footnote to the Parnnion-Sanders marriage, and not as a caption to those marriages which follow. This footnote occurs at the bottom of p. 5, in the original entry made by Rev. Thomas Read in the following words: 'License, Ann Arundel granted.' Richard H. Spencer, Cor. Secy. Md. Hist. Soc."
